Directions: Using Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs, categorize several of the situations and actions found in the book Night. The first one is done for you.

Situation, Action, Dialogue (include page # and quote)	Which need(s) is (are) being denied?	How is (are) the character(s) being denied the need reacting?	Which need(s) are those denying the victim's needs fulfilling?
After marching to Gleiwitz, Elie runs into Juliek, the boy who plays violin. Juliek is very concerned about his violin: "I . . . I'm afraid . . . They'll break . . . my violin . . . I . . . I brought it with me: (94)	Esteem Cognitive Aesthetic Self- Actualization	At the moment Juliek seems to be physically ok so he is obsessed with his need for his violin – the thing he takes pride in, finds beauty in, and that he feels gives him his identity.	In this case, no single person is denying Juliek his needs, but it's easy to assume that those who took it would get status and self esteem from it.
