

READING COMPREHENSION

BRIEFLY answer the questions for each chapter on a separate piece of paper. Keep this short.

1. Where has Sarah been living and for how long?
2. What does Eric report to Laurel?
3. Why/how does Sarah make it difficult for people to help her?
4. How do Ellerby and Eric get Sarah to Lemry's?
5. Do you agree with how Lemry is helping?
6. What are they arguing about in Lemry's class?
7. How does Sarah confront Brittain?
8. How does she confront Mautz?
9. How does Mautz react?
10. How does Jody interrupt?
11. What does Ellerby say at the end of the chapter?

THEME

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Provide 4 examples as to how each of these amendments is not only used in this chapter, but also throughout the novel.
