

Staying Fat for Sarah Byrnes by Chris Crutcher

Chapters 1 & 2 Enhanced

Name: _____

Complete the study guide. Activities marked with a [G] can be completed with partners or groups of 3. Activities marked with an [I] must be completed individually.

WORDS TO KNOW IGI Include part of speech and definition.

Enigma –

Congruous –

Appendage –

Hyperventilate –

Rote –

Mercenary –

Nonsensically –

Utterest –

Contempt –

Cellophane –

Titter –

Extortion –

Jackhammer –

Pummeled –

Adjusto –

Cretin –

CONTEXT CLUE VOCABULARY III

Directions: Find the word. Write the sentences before, including, and after the word. Next, circle any words you think might be a clue to the definition. Finally, write what you think the definition of the word is and its part of speech based on the clues you circled.

Tributaries: _____

Staying Fat for Sarah Byrnes by Chris Crutcher

Chapters 1 & 2 Enhanced

Name: _____

Definition: _____

LITERARY TERMS IGI

Directions: Find examples of the following literary terms: Include the page number of the example as well.

CHAPTER 1:

Metaphor: _____

Simile: _____

Alliteration: _____

Motif: _____

Allusion (2): _____

CHAPTER 2

Simile (At least three examples): _____

Motif: _____

Allusions (2): _____

Idiom: _____

UNIVERSAL THEMES III

There are two universal themes that are brought up in Chapter 2. The first is Human joy vs. Human pain and the second is accountability for one's actions. In no less than one paragraph on your own paper, pick one of these themes and discuss how they apply to your personal life.