Of Mice and Men: Defining Friendship

Part 1: Journal: List all the characteristics of a good friend you can think of. For three of them, give an example from your life.

 Using your journal lists, your group should come up with a once sentence statement for the definition of friendship. There is one important rule: Your definition will have THREE parts. Example: True love is selfless, passionate, and infinite. Extra Credit: Make your definition parallel like the example. You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave out of the definition. Dur One Sentence Definition: Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote – you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra! 	Part 2: Forming a Group (3) Definition
 There is one important rule: Your definition will have THREE parts. Example: True love is selfless, passionate, and infinite. Extra Credit: Make your definition parallel like the example. You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave out of the definition. Our One Sentence Definition: Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote – you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra! 	Group Members:
 Example: True love is selfless, passionate, and infinite. Extra Credit: Make your definition parallel like the example. You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave out of the definition. Our One Sentence Definition: deas we had to leave out:	definition of friendship.
 Extra Credit: Make your definition parallel like the example. You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave out of the definition. Our One Sentence Definition: deas we had to leave out: Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote – you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra!
 You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave out of the definition. Our One Sentence Definition: deas we had to leave out: Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote – you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra!
deas we had to leave out: Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote − you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra!	◆ You will share this with the class. Be prepared to share a couple of the ideas you had to leave
 Part 3: Connecting to Of Mice and Men Now that you have your definition, find a quote from Of Mice and Men that illustrates at least one of the parts of your definition. Give us the page number of the quote – you will read it to the class. You will be asked to explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra! 	Our One Sentence Definition:
 explain how your quote fits one or more parts of your definition. Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra! Page Number: 	one of the parts of your definition.
 Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets all three parts, you score extra! Page Number:
	• Extra Credit: If you can find a quote that has ALL THREE parts and can explain how it meets a Quote:	Page Number:
	Quote:
Part 4: Present – We will compile your three traits for the class definition as well	Part 4: Present – We will compile your three traits for the class definition as well.

Rubric:

three part definition appropriate and well-explained quote organized presentation active participation by all three group members listening while others present EC: parallel structure & quote that meets all 3 definition parts

✔ When done, turn in this worksheet with each of your group member's journals attached.