

Worksheet/One Pager Rubric

8-9 A – Excellent 90% or above

- All questions answered completely and with 90-100% accuracy
- 9/10 work has great detail, while 10/10 work tends to include details beyond the obvious or just correct.
- Most or all of the work is in complete sentences, and longer responses even have transitions.
- Work is neat and readable: demonstrates respect for the grader, who needs to read it quickly & efficiently.

6-7 B – Proficient 80% to 89%

- All or nearly all questions answered completely and with 85-90% accuracy
- Adequately detailed but clearly not as detailed as 8-9 range responses – may lack some specifics
- A noticeable amount of the work is in complete sentences.
- Work is pretty neat and readable: demonstrates respect for the grader, who needs to read it quickly & efficiently.

4-5 C – Developing but still acceptable 70% to 79%

- Noticeable questions are incomplete; answers given are 70-85% accurate
- Clearly superficial with only the most basic answers. Lacks real detail and tends to just summarize or generalize.
- Complete sentences are inconsistent.
- Work seems rushed and lacks a sense of neatness; reflects some disregard for the grader, who needs to read it quickly & efficiently.

2-3 D – Developing but must improve 60% to 69%

- Noticeable questions are incomplete; answers given lack accuracy or show lack of understanding.
- Lacks the detail to show real understanding.
- Complete sentences are inconsistent or even missing.
- Work is messy if not unreadable; reflects total disregard for the grader, who needs to read it quickly & efficiently.

Below 2-3: Work does not show understanding of the task or is not complete enough to be graded fairly. 0-59%
